

I am really disappointed in Sinclair's action that is set to take place days before the election.

Their decision to force stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a blatant example of the dangers of media consolidation.

You are obligated by law to serve the public interest. Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.